

Application to register a third-party campaigner

Electoral Act 1907, section 175ST

If a third-party campaigner incurs electoral expenditure more than $500 in relation to an election, then the campaigner must use this form to apply to the Western Australian Electoral Commission (the Commission) for registration. By submitting an application, the third-party campaigner is indicating that their electoral expenditure will exceed $500.

Applications must be made before polling day of the election that the third-party campaigner wishes to participate, and before the campaigner's electoral expenditure exceeds $500.

If, after registration, any details provided in this application form change, the agent of the third-party campaigner has 30 days to notify the Commission the details have changed.

The application can be lodged by email to fad@waec.wa.gov.au.
