

Application for registration of a political party

The application is to be made by the party secretary and include:

- A completed application signed by the party secretary (Part B)
- A membership list with the details of at least 500 party members who are electors in WA and on whose membership the party relies to support its eligibility for registration. Details must match the State electoral roll.
- Declaration of Party Membership forms (FD15) that match the details of the members included in the membership list.
- A copy of the party's constitution
- Payment of the application fee ($2,000). This can be paid via EFT.

WA Electoral Commission BSB 066 – 040 Acct 17800001. Please use party name as reference.

The application can be lodged by email to fad@waec.wa.gov.au.
