SUMMARY OF EXPENDITURE INCURRED IN RELATION TO THE ELECTION

Expenditure within the following categories should be disclosed if the advertising itself was conducted during the election period, regardless of whether or not the expense or production of material was incurred during the election period. Place in the category which is most relevant to the activity conducted.	Value or Amount $
Broadcasting an election-related advertisement (for example, a television or radio advertisement)
Publishing an advertisement in a journal (including newspapers or magazines)
Displaying an election-related advertisement at a place of entertainment (for example, the cinema)	$24,562 ex GST
The production of any advertisement which is broadcast, published or displayed as above (even if the production of that advertisement occurs outside the election period)	$450 ex GST
Producing any material, other than above, which requires authorisation and which is used for advertising during the election period (even if the production of that material occurs outside the election period)
Producing and distributing electoral matter addressed to particular persons or organisations (for example, mail-outs or letterbox drops to households)
Consultant's or advertising agent's fees for services provided during the election period, or the production of material for use during the election period
Carrying out an opinion poll or other research related to the election
Total of all expenditure	$25,012 ex GST
Note that this will not include all types of expenditure, only those defined at section 175 of the Electoral Act 1907. For example, nomination fees are not considered electoral expenditure under section 175.
