1. BACKGROUND

This is the fifth report since the political finance legislation came into force in Western Australia on 9 November 1996. Under the provisions of Part VI of the Electoral Act 1907, all political parties, associated entities, individual candidates, Legislative Council groups and other persons are required to provide the Electoral Commissioner with details of gifts and other income received and expenditure incurred for electoral or political purposes.

This report relates to the operation of Part VI of the Act over the 2000-2001 financial year. It provides information on the annual returns lodged by political parties and associated entities for this period, in addition to election returns submitted for the 2001 State General Election.

The 2000-2001 Political Finance Disclosure Schedule, which highlights key disclosure dates during the period, is included in Appendix 1.

1.1 Essential Features of the Political Finance Legislation

Agents

All political parties must appoint an agent. Individual candidates and non-party groups may appoint an agent to act for them or accept responsibility for compliance with the Act. A separate agent appointment is required for each election for both candidates and non-party groups. Appointments must be made before 6.00pm on the day before polling day in the election.

The financial controller of an associated entity is considered to be its agent.

Gifts

Acceptance of donations from unidentified persons or sources equal to or more than the specified amount of $1,500 is prohibited under the Act. Gifts of $1,500 or more must include the name and address of the person who made the gift. Anonymous donations above the specified amount are payable to, or may be recoverable by, the State.

Under regulation 3 of the Electoral (Political Finance) Regulations 1996, the Electoral Commissioner is to determine, as soon as practicable after polling day in a general election, whether the specified amount should increase. This is achieved by means of a formula, which takes into account CPI increases. If the amount is greater than $1,500, the Electoral Commissioner must publish the greater specified amount within 30 days after the general election. After the February 2001 State General Election, the Electoral Commissioner determined that the specified amount had increased from $1,500 to $1,600. This took effect as from 1 July 2001 and will affect the 1 July 2001 to 30 June 2002 disclosure returns.

Annual Returns

All political parties (whether registered or not) and their associated entities are required to lodge an annual return by 30 November, disclosing all gifts and other income received for the previous financial year.

Election-related Returns

After an election, all parties, candidates, groups and other persons are required to send an election return to the Electoral Commissioner within 15 weeks after polling day. There are different disclosure periods for each category. For example, political parties are required to disclose only expenditure incurred in an election, as they disclose all gifts and other income in their annual returns.

Candidates are required to disclose all gifts received and expenditure incurred during the disclosure period for the election, which ends 30 days after the current election and:

- if the candidate was a candidate in a previous election (in the last five years), it commences 30 days after polling day in the previous election in which they were a candidate
- for new and other candidates, it commences one year before the day of nomination in the present election.

Groups must submit a return disclosing all gifts received and expenditure incurred between the hour of nomination and 30 days after the current election.

Persons other than political parties, associated entities, candidates and groups who incur expenditure for political purposes must disclose all gifts received from 30 days after polling day in the last preceding general election to 30 days after the current election. Relevant details of gifts that are expended partially or wholly for political purposes must be provided if the gift equals or exceeds the threshold of $1,500. In addition, if the total amount of electoral expenditure exceeds $500, a return is required to be completed disclosing that expenditure. Other persons may include interest groups, lobby groups, welfare groups, unions and associations.

1.2 Legislative Amendments

In October 2000, amendments were made to Part VI of the Electoral Act 1907 which included:

- broadening the definition of electoral expenditure to include the production and distribution of mail-outs
- giving candidates until 6.00pm on the day prior to polling day to appoint agents rather than at the close of nominations
- stipulating that a political party cannot avoid compliance by dissolving itself
- requiring agents of political parties to lodge returns or other information identifying any associated entities, as there is currently no obligation on associated entities to identify themselves
- requiring agents of political parties to lodge a return separating gifts from other income received by the party, and separately identifying gifts and income relating to State elections.

In relation to the last point, political parties required to lodge Commonwealth returns may lodge those same returns to comply with the requirements of the Electoral Act 1907. However, the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 does not require parties to separate donations from other amounts received from organisations, such as matured term deposits from banks. While it is permissible to submit these returns to comply with the Electoral Act 1907, returns lodged by state based parties could differ for comparative purposes, as donations may not be clearly distinguished in the Commonwealth returns. Moreover, State and Federal details are amalgamated in these returns, so amounts relating to State elections cannot be readily distinguished and audited.

It is anticipated that regulations relating to the last three points will be promulgated within a few months to effect these changes.

1.3 Records to be Kept

Under the Electoral (Political Finance) Regulations 1996, agents of political parties, candidates and groups must maintain:

- a receipt book, for recording receipts of money
- an acknowledgment book, for recording gifts other than money
- bank and financial institution statements
- an expenditure book.

The financial controller of an associated entity must keep all of the above except for an expenditure book.

Other people who incur expenditure for political purposes must keep a record of all gifts received for political purposes and maintain:

- a receipt book
- an acknowledgment book
- bank and financial institution statements.

People who incur electoral expenditure must also maintain:

- an expenditure book
- bank and financial institution statements.

All records and bank and financial institution statements must be retained for 6 years.

In November 2000, the Electoral (Political Finance) Regulations 1996 were modified to allow candidates and groups to use a computerised accounting system to keep a receipt book, acknowledgment book and expenditure book.

1.4 Role of the Western Australian Electoral Commissioner

The Electoral Commissioner is responsible for maintaining a register of political party agents and obtaining the relevant information from parties, associated entities, candidates, groups and other persons through annual and election-related disclosure returns. He is empowered to check all returns, obtain any information relevant to disclosure requirements, and to interview people and scrutinise bank or other financial accounts where donations are deposited.

The Electoral Commissioner also prepares an annual report on the operation of Part VI of the Act in relation to the previous financial year. This is submitted to the Minister for Electoral Affairs, who tables the report in Parliament.

2. 2000-2001 ANNUAL RETURNS

Annual return forms were sent to political parties in June and November 2001. Parties were also requested to advise their associated entities to complete the necessary disclosure returns. A total of 22 political parties and 5 associated entities lodged disclosure returns for the period. Data provided in the above returns is included as Appendices 3, 4, 9 and 10 of this report.

A list of political parties as at 30 June 2001 is included in Appendix 2. Identified associated entities are included in Appendix 4.

3. 2001 STATE ELECTION RETURNS

Parties

During the election period, political parties received copies of the relevant forms and the Disclosure of Gifts, Other Income and Electoral Expenditure Guidelines explaining their financial disclosure requirements. Data provided in these returns, relating to electoral expenditure incurred in an election, is included in Appendix 3.

Associated entities are not required to disclose expenditure incurred in an election.

Candidates, Groups and Other Persons

Candidates and groups were provided with a copy of the Guidelines and relevant forms as part of the nomination process prior to the 2001 State General Election. Information regarding financial disclosure was also included in A Guide for Candidates which was prepared for Legislative Assembly and Legislative Council candidates. Booklets and relevant forms were handed out to the party secretary or agent of the seven registered parties for distribution to party candidates and groups. Candidates and groups who were not from the registered parties received the information packs and forms upon nomination.

The disclosure period for candidates, groups and other persons ended 30 days after polling day, which was 12 March 2001. Only a small number of candidates appointed agents by the deadline of 9 February 2001 to lodge a disclosure return for them: 23 candidates out of 366 for the Legislative Assembly and 8 candidates out of 159 for the Legislative Council.

Election returns were due within 15 weeks of polling day, which was by 28 May 2001. As at 30 June 2001, 44 of the 366 Legislative Assembly candidate returns and 26 of the 159 Legislative Council candidate returns remained outstanding.

At the time of writing, all but four returns have been received. Prosecution action is being considered against those four candidates who have not submitted an election return.

Data provided in the above returns is included as Appendices 5, 6, 7, 8, 11, 12 and 13 of this report.

4. AUDIT OF RETURNS

The Act provides for the Electoral Commissioner to authorise officers to investigate returns required under Part VI. In order to avoid duplication of effort, a coordinated audit approach was arranged with the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC). The AEC reviewed the 2000-2001 Commonwealth annual disclosure returns of seven Western Australian-based parties and three associated entities who had prepared Commonwealth returns, to check their compliance with the disclosure provisions of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918.

A summary of the findings from these audits was provided to the WAEC, which revealed that several amendments to returns were required as a result of omissions. In addition, the AEC found that in some cases account books had not been properly maintained. The AEC was also investigating whether a number of groups, which were not associated entities but had links with political parties, had disclosure obligations.

The Commission also employed an independent auditing firm, Price & Newman, to audit the returns from a selection of Legislative Assembly and Legislative Council candidates, political parties, associated entities, groups and other persons. One of the Commissioner's staff and the principal auditor made the selection on the basis of getting an appropriate spread from each category. For example, from the 525 candidates who contested Assembly and Council vacancies, a sample of 56 candidates was selected: 37 from the Legislative Assembly and 19 from the Legislative Council. This sample included candidates from each registered political party, independents, those with high income and/or expenditure amounts and candidates submitting nil returns. In addition, five political parties, eight Legislative Council groups and three other persons were audited.

Audits conducted on behalf of the Electoral Commissioner found a higher level of compliance than those conducted previously. No instances of deliberate misrepresentation were found. The audits did reveal several instances of errors of omission and the individuals concerned were asked to submit amended returns.

Some candidates did not maintain adequate records as required by regulation 15 of the Electoral (Political Finance) Regulations 1996, which resulted in a lack of records to audit. In some cases, the only records available to audit were the candidates' personal bank and financial institution statements, which included cheque, savings, credit card, housing loan and investment accounts.

5. ACCESS TO RETURNS

The Western Australian Electoral Commission maintains copies of each political finance return. In accordance with s.175ZC of the Act, members of the public may view or obtain copies of returns, which are available four weeks after the end of the lodgement period. State election-related returns were made available to the public on 25 June 2001. Annual returns were made available on 2 January 2002 because the office was closed during the Christmas/New Year period.

6. SECTION 175ZE OF THE *ELECTORAL ACT 1907

Public agencies required to publish an annual report under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985 or any other written law are required to include a statement in the report of all expenditure incurred by or on behalf of the public agency during the reporting period in relation to:

- Advertising agencies
- Market research organisations
- Polling organisations
- Direct mail organisations
- Media advertising organisations

This statement must detail the total amount of the expenditure, the amount of expenditure for each heading listed above, and the name of each person, agency or organisation to whom an amount was paid. No details are required if the amount of expenditure under a heading is less than $1,500, although a "nil" statement is still required to be published.

Last year, the Commission spent a significant amount of time identifying the relevant agencies and their level of compliance. A total of 66 agencies out of 272 investigated did not comply with the Act. In all cases except two, non-compliance with the Act did not appear to have been intentional. Rather, it resulted from a particular interpretation of the legislation or uncertainty by some agencies regarding their status as public agencies. Two agencies—Gold Corporation and Western Power Corporation—did not comply with the legislation for the previous reporting period, as they felt the information requested was commercially sensitive. Western Power has since informed the Commission that it has complied with the requirements of section 175ZE of the Electoral Act 1907 in its 2000-2001 Annual Report, while Gold Corporation has not complied to date.

7. PUBLICATIONS

The Electoral Commission has produced Guidelines for the Disclosure of Gifts, Other Income and Electoral Expenditure: one version for candidates and groups, and another for political parties, associated entities and other persons. These outline the purpose of the political finance legislation and the implications for persons involved in the electoral process. A copy of the guidelines is sent out to relevant persons at the end of each disclosure period together with a copy of the appropriate disclosure return(s). Copies of the guidelines and disclosure returns are also available from the Western Australian Electoral Commission on request.
